FIFA World Cup Finals BBQ

July 13, 2014

Famous for its churrasco (barbeque), East Bay Café brings you a little taste of Brazil.

Costela (Beef Ribs)

These tender, juicy beef ribs are seasoned and cooked right on the barbeque. Enjoyed especially in Southern Brazil, Costela will easily become an East Bay Café favorite.

Frango Churrasco (Grilled Chicken)

Seasoned and marinated to perfection, our Frango Churrasco is also a Southern Brazil dish brought to life here at East Bay Café.

Chimichurri Sauce

Made from various spices grown in East Bay Café's very own spice garden including parsley, garlic, and oregano, this sauce is an optional addition to either the Costela or Frango Churrasco.

Brazilian Baked Beans

Brought straight from Brazil, these baked beans are the best you've ever had! Made with onions, fresh green pepper, and bacon, these beans will go great with our Costela and Frango Churrasco.

Pelé's Grilled Pineapple

After our fresh pineapple is grilled over open flames, this delectable treat is sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar to make your taste buds tingle.

Vitória Vegetable Salad

Made with broccoli, bacon, cashews, and red onion, this salad will have you scream out Vitória (Victory)!

Guaraná Antarctica

Made in Brazil, this imported soft drink is a favorite among natives and foreigners alike. Enjoy a nice cold glass as you sit back and watch the World Cup Final.

Bolo Prestígio (Chocolate Coconut Cake)

Prestige is earned when taking home the World Cup, which is why we've brought you the special Brazilian dessert Bolo Prestígio (Prestige Cake). If you're too full, feel free to take this treat home to enjoy later.
